How do we define bullying and conflict?

Bullying

Bullying is contrary to the values held at Robert le Kyng Primary School and will not be tolerated in any form. Every member of the Robert le Kyng community has the right to stay and feel safe and bullying prevents this. Bullying is the deliberate intent to upset, hurt and intimidate others by words and/ or deeds sustained over a period of time. It can be actions taken by one person against another or by a group against another person or persons. It can happen at any time in and out of school. Bullying can be physical, verbal, mental, religious, racist, sexist and homophobic. Bullying is harmful to all those involved and can affect not only young people, but also adults who can be subjected to threatening or intimidating behaviour. It is unacceptable in whatever form it takes and will be assertively challenged at Robert le Kyng Primary school.

Conflict

Conflict between pupils can often lead to bullying. Conflict can arise due to personal differences between individual children or groups of children, problems from outside school becoming interwoven with school life or from difficulties arising from the breakdown of relationships between individual or groups of pupils. To prevent conflict developing into bullying, staff can use various procedures at their disposal.
